JAMES L. O'DEA JR. 1959 PHOTO

In the 1960s Mr. O'Dea defended civil-rights activists as a volunteer attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union in Georgia and Florida.

A veteran of World War II, he received a Bronze Star for bravery and a Purple Heart for his service as a Marine landing in the first wave at Iwo Jima.

Mr. O'Dea traveled frequently to France, where his interest in wine was recognized in 1982 when the city of Beaune made him an honorary citizen.

He leaves his wife, Johanna (Mahoney); and four sons, James 3d of Washington, Dennis M. of New York City, Brian G. of Oakland, Calif., and

Margaret Gray, 85

Noted dog breeder, exhibitor

Margaret (LeCler) Gray, a well-known dog owner, breeder, exhibitor and judge, died Thursday at Walden Home Health Care facility in Concord. She was 85.

Born in Newton, Mrs. Gray was raised in Waban and educated at Kendall Hall School in Pride's Crossing. A resident of Stow for the past 18 years, she also lived in Sud-bury, Acton, and Westford.

Mrs. Gray was an internationally known figure in the canine field. A longtime breeder of Scottish and Skye terriers, she established the world-renowned Graecroft prefix, which was registered with the American Kennel Club in 1934.

The lineage has produced more than 100 champions. The Graecroft prefix and breeding program is maintained by Mrs. Gray's daughter, Jane Gray Doty of Stow.

Mrs. Gray was a founding member of the Scottish Terrier Club of New England, an honorary member of the Skye Terrier Club of America and the New England Terrier Club.
 She was a former member of the kennel clubs of Middlesex County, Framingham District, South Shore and Worcester.

Mrs. Gray was a licensed AKC judge and had judged the Westminister Kennel Club Show in New York.
