MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: In our community and around the world, the Red Cross is recognized as a symbol of compassion and humanitarian action, caring about and for others wherever there is need; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross provides constant round the clock services to American military personnel and their families both in this country and overseas; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross, when disaster strikes stands ever ready to provide immediate aid to victims of floods, fire, storm and other catastrophes; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross provides to hospitals, health agencies, and physicians, more whole blood and blood derivatives than any other United States organizations, thus greatly contributing to the health of the American people; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross works daily in our community to ensure the health and safety of our families through training in CPR, first aid and water safety; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross emphasizes self-reliance and concern for others to help keep our community and our country strong through the promotion of preventive health measures and health education courses; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross receives no financial support from the federal or state governments, all of us can help support our American Red Cross by contributing our money, in addition to our blood and our time as volunteers; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: We, the Cambridge City Council, do hereby proclaim the month of March, 1992 as American Red Cross Month in the city of Cambridge and urge all citizens of this community to join us in supporting all of the Red Cross programs.
