

City of Cambridge

12.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 8, 1996

COUNCILLOR REEVES
 VICE MAYOR BORN
 COUNCILLOR DAVIS
 COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
 COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
 MAYOR RUSSELL
 COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
 COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
 COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: Ronald Brown, Secretary of Commerce for the United States and a Goodwill Ambassador for our nation, has along with 33 others met an untimely death; and

WHEREAS: Secretary Brown was an American leader who inspired in all of us a vision of a better America -- one which brings together many different groups who have not always perceived their common interests; and

WHEREAS: Ronald Brown was the personification of many of the defining trends of American politics, and was a part of all of the important passages of the modern Democratic Party; and

WHEREAS: Ronald Brown was, most of all, interested in bringing people together to make things work, but he was also a believer in the American Dream with an ability to lift people's sights to look at important goals; and

WHEREAS: Ronald Brown will be missed by all he loved and touched; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record expressing its deep sadness at the untimely death of Secretary Brown and its condolences to the Brown family.

In City Council April 8, 1996

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
 City Clerk

12.
40.

April 8, 1996

COUNCILLOR REEVES

WHEREAS: Ronald Brown, Secretary of Commerce for the United States and a Goodwill Ambassador for our nation, has along with 33 others met an untimely death; and

WHEREAS: Secretary Brown was an American leader who inspired in all of us a vision of a better America ~~one in which~~ ~~one which brought groups~~ ~~together that reflect disparate interests of groups~~ ~~of blacks and whites~~ ~~may therefore be it~~

Resolved: That the City Council go on record expressing its deep sadness at the death of Ronald Brown and its condolences to the Brown family;

one which brings together many different groups who have not always perceived their common interests; and

Whereas: Ronald Brown was the personification of many of the defining trends of American politics, ~~he represented the ascendancy of the black middle~~ ~~he represented the black ascendancy of the black middle~~ and was a part of all of the important passages of the modern Democratic Party; and

Whereas: Ronald Brown was most of all interested in bringing people together to make things work, but he was also a believer in the American Dream with an ability to lift people's sights to look at important goals; and

Whereas: Ronald Brown will be missed by all he loved and trusted; now therefore be it

Resolved: That ~~this~~ the City Council go on record expressing its deep sadness at the untimely death of Secretary Brown and its condolences to the Brown family

Ronald Brown, Secretary of Commerce for the United States and a Goodwill Ambassador for our nation has along with 33 others met an untimely death.

Secretary Brown was, an American leader who inspired in all of us a vision of a better America -- one in which 40.

City of Cambridge

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 8, 1996

COUNCILLOR REEVES

WHEREAS: That the Fourth Annual International Peace Games Festival will be held on May 7, 1996; and be it further

WHEREAS: That these games originated in New Haven, Connecticut and headquartered now in Cambridge at Phillips Brooks House, endeavor to promote the internalization of non-violent and peace-making instincts especially for young people -- the leaders of tomorrow; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record expressing its best wishes for the Fourth Annual Internatinal Peace Games Festival.

Consent Order #40

Councillor Reeves re: Express best wishes to the Fourth Annual International Peace Games Festival to be held on May 7, 1996.

In City Council April 8, 1996

City of Cambridge

12.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 8, 1996

COUNCILLOR REEVES

WHEREAS: Ronald Brown, Secretary of Commerce for the United States and a Goodwill Ambassador for our nation, has along with 33 others met an untimely death; and

WHEREAS: Secretary Brown was an American leader who inspired in all of us a vision of a better America -- one which brings together many different groups who have not always perceived their common interests; and

WHEREAS: Ronald Brown was the personification of many of the defining trends of American politics, and was a part of all of the important passages of the modern Democratic Party; and

WHEREAS: Ronald Brown was, most of all, interested in bringing people together to make things work, but he was also a believer in the America Dream with an ability to lift people's sights to look at important goals; and

WHEREAS: Ronald Brown will be missed by all he loved and touched; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record expressing its deep sadness at the untimely death of Secretary Brown and its condolences to the Brown family.

Entire membership R-349
Consent Order #12

Councillor Reeves re: Resolution on the tragic death of Ronald Brown,
Secretary of Commerce for the United States and a Goodwill Ambassador for our nation has along with 33 others met their untimely death.

In City Council April 8, 1996

Order Adopted