OFFICE OF

BOARD OF HEALTH,
CITY HALL.

April 23^d 1885

City of Cambridge
SIR:

You are hereby notified that your premises known as the Mill Pond are not in conformity with the laws relating to the public health, by reason of the following:

Very filthy black stinking water on one side and coloring part of the surface.

We trust you will see it is for your interest to give this matter your early attention, and, by so doing, save yourself any further trouble or annoyance.

Respectfully,

Alfred F. Holt

Health Officer.
