VICE MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: The people of the City of Cambridge and this City Council take great pride in the accomplishments of the young people of our city; and

WHEREAS: Cambridge's Community Art Center has been working since 1937 to provide arts alternatives to the more than 600 children who live in Cambridge's Newtowne Court and Washington Elms community; and

WHEREAS: "Rising to the Top," an award winning video project of the Community Arts Center was represented last year in Tblisi, Soviet Georgia at the International Festival and returned home with a 2nd place award for a film on drug abuse; and

WHEREAS: This year, four members of "Rising to the Top" and their group leader have been invited to the 9th International Festival of Children's Amateur Films, being held in Warsaw, Poland on June 6; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge community is extremely proud of the accomplishments of these video students, of their improved academic skills, and of their increased sense of connection to the broader world; and

WHEREAS: Financial assistance is needed to cover the group's travel costs to Poland; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council extend its warmest congratulations to the members of the "Rising to the Top" video program and to the Cambridge Community Art Center for their remarkable work, and encourage Cambridge residents to contribute whatever support they can to make this planned trip to Poland a reality.

In City Council May 20, 1991.
