Presentation Summary

May 8, 1996

Dear Ken;

As you can see by the "info" below, June 28 of this year is our grandson Glen's 16th birthday, and we would very much appreciate a Proclamation from you to give to him celebrating this birthday. (16th is kind of a biggie, I think).

Glen Raymond Curry was born in Winchester, Mass., on June 28, 1980, and is the son of Anne and Mark Curry of Wakefield, Mass. He is the oldest grandchild of Joe and myself, and was the first great grandchild of my Mom, Harriet L. Cadigan.

He began ^{his} excellence in academia at the Little Red Schoolhouse in Sept. of 1985, and his violin playing in the school orchestra at the Atwell Middle School in Sept. of 1991 until the present, where he now plays in the High School orchestra. Regarding the academic side of Glen, he has always been and continues to be an outstanding student making the Honor Roll consistently for the past 6 years.

When he discovered that there was no boys' swim team, he embarked upon a mission to form a cooperative high school boys swim team, which came into fruition last year and had a very good record for a new endeavor.

Glen also ^{PLAYED} ~~was~~ the leading roll of Mr. Kirby, Jr. in the high school production of "You Can't Take It With You", and sang a solo in Italian in the Wakefield High School classical recital. He recently appeared in the chorus of No, No, Nanette, and is the bariton section leader of the High School award-winning marching band.

Last but not least, he is in the accelerated course for gifted students, and has sort of "set the standard" for all the other kids in the family by his example. (Oh, and have I mentioned how much he has helped and taught Matty in the past 10 years?) He also is a great baby-sitter for the other little ones.

He is a very uninduced Nana, but I know could be +
