Dear Councillor Sullivan,

North Cambridge residents recently gathered at the O'Neill Branch Library to celebrate the publication of the Fourth Annual Coloring Calendar. This calendar has become a favorite with the neighbors who enjoy the illustrations for each month designed by the children of Cambridge. The branch librarians provide a theme and the children do the rest! As you will see, each illustration demonstrates a child's interpretation of a favorite story. This program connects children with books and encourages them to appreciate literature and reading.

The annual exhibit hosted by the library gives the children the opportunity to share their efforts with family, friends and O'Neill Branch neighbors.

I thought you might enjoy sharing their enthusiasm for books, art and their local library for 1997.

Sincerely,

Susan
