PUBLISHERS AND BOOK SELLERS SINCE 1868

Date _____

To the authorities of:

The business of our Company's wholesale customers, such as this young independent student dealer, is to sell door-to-door in your state books which are purchased by the dealer from our Company in Tennessee.

The business of dealers in Southwestern products falls precisely within the description of the kind of business which is protected by the Interstate Commerce Clause from the imposition of local license fees and taxes.

Their business is to solicit orders for the sale of books from their own retail customers. The dealer fills the orders by purchasing the books from our Company, which are shipped to the dealer from our warehouse near Nashville, Tennessee.

We are confident that this wholesale customer will abide by your rules and regulations. Any courtesies extended by you to her/him will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Ralph Mosley
Chief Executive Officer
