FROM: JOSEPH E. CONNARTON
CITY CLERK

SUBJECT: DEDICATION CEREMONY/JUNE 14, 1992

Please be advised that pursuant to City Council Order Number Nine of September 16, 1991, a ceremony has been scheduled for the dedication of the PAUL HIRSHSON SQUARE for Sunday, June 14, 1992.

As you will note by the enclosed City Council resolution the City Council has asked for an appropriate sign to be erected at the corner of Huron Avenue and Park Avenue.

Mrs. Hirshson, widow of Paul, has asked that a wooden sign similar to that which was erected for the King of Thailand which was placed at the corner of Eliot Street and Bennett Street be erected for her late husband.

I am sure the City Council would appreciate if this could be done.

Also I would appreciate if you could arrange for the flat bed truck, podium and P.A. system at this location for the ceremony. I will arrange, through the Police Department, for the traffic control.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.
