WHEREAS: The Campaign to Save 2000 Homes continues to provide excellent advocacy on behalf of tenants facing eviction and those who are uncertain of their housing future; and

WHEREAS: Last week the Campaign joined tenants in picketing an auction related to two Cambridge properties. This group was effective in attending the auction (without the $25,000 cashiers check necessary for admission); and

WHEREAS: They were able to keep tenants informed about exactly what transpired at the auction and how this will affect tenants in the future; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this is hard lonely, moral work. The Cambridge Campaign to Save 2000 Homes is to be congratulated for its fervor and conscientiousness in its work on behalf of Cambridge's at risk tenants; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to Campaign to Save 2000 Homes on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council April 13, 1998.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.
