Enclosure: City Council Communication No. 8 of 6/13/88

The Cambridge City Council
795 Mass. Ave.
Cambridge MA 02140

June 9, 1988.

Dear Honorable City Councillors,

On behalf of the residents of Washinton Elms and Newtowne Court, and other concerned citizens of Area 4, I would like to request a hearing before the City Council, relating to crime and security problems in our neighborhood. We have had several meetings with the police department, and would like to bring our concerns to your attention. We believe that increased police presence in our neighborhood is necessary, and would like to explain some of our reasons.

On behalf of our tenant organization, we hope that you can we can come before you on June 20 or 27 for a short period of time. If we have to wait until the August meeting, the problems of the neighborhood may well go unaddressed during the hot summer months.

We thank you kindly for granting this request.

Sincerely Yours,

James Biggs
