 COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
 COUNCILLOR WALSH
 VICE MAYOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: The problem of bicycles riding on sidewalks and in other imprudent ways to endanger pedestrians has continued to plague many Cambridge residents, especially Senior Citizens, through the past summer months; and

WHEREAS: Many members of the public are unaware that the Bicycle Committee together with the Cambridge Police are preparing a proposal for citations, possible signage, and other measures to address these violations; and

WHEREAS: Many members of the public have observations to contribute to the public discourse on this matter and suggestions to make and it is in the interests of the city to formally respond to these concerns; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the recommendations of the Police Department, when assembled into Draft Form in late Fall, be presented for Public Comment at an advertised, televised Public Meeting in the Sullivan Chambers; and be it further ORDERED: That the City Manager report to the City Council about the possibility of making this a pilot "interactive" meeting during which members of the public can call in or E-mail their observations and comments, especially those senior citizens who would have difficulty attending personally.

In City Council September 12, 1994.
