

PROJECT RECREATION - 4, INC.

134 NORFOLK STREET

CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS 02139

(617) 547-0120

You are cordially invited to attend
"RECREATION ON A SHOE STRING"
(Admission Free - Door Prizes)

An evening of fun and frolic which will highlight the recreation programs presently underway in our neighborhood.

on Thursday, February 17th

7:30 P. M.

at St. Mary's Gym, corner Harvard and Prospect Streets

The host for this event is Project Recreation-4, Inc., a non-profit community organization recently established to better the recreation services in the Area 4 section of the Model Neighborhood of Cambridge.

See what is available for you and your family. You'll surely be surprised as much by what is going on as by the need for expanded activities.

Everything from puppet and live theatre to dressmaking, dancing and all types of sports, arts and crafts will be featured. Find out how you can join.

The PR-4 related agencies which will be presenting over 40 live recreation exhibits, demonstrations and programs include:

St. Mary's Teen Center
Central School and Adult Center
Cambridge Art Center & Street Theatre
Fletcher Community School & Teen Center
Roberts Community School & Photography Lab.
Challenge Program of Phillips Brooks House, Harvard
Spanish Parents Planning Group
People's Theatre
High Steppers Drill Team
Margaret Fuller - Cambridge Neighborhood House

This same evening many of your neighbors will be presented with awards for their volunteer efforts in bringing success to the agency programs funded by PR-4. Join with them in showing that you also care. Please attend.

*PR-4 monies awarded to the above groups are made available under a grant from the Federal Department of Housing and Urban Development and the City of Cambridge through the local Model Cities Program.

REV. THOMAS CURRAN, Pres.

45

Placed on file