Deputy City Manager

September 10, 1990

To the Honorable, the City Council:

In response to Awaiting Reports #45 - #50 of July 30, 1990 regarding Department of Public Utilities hearings, please be advised that the following hearings took place and required no action by the City of Cambridge:

Cape and Islands Cellular Ltd. requested DPU for a certificate to operate a mobile radio utility system in the Barnstable-Dukes-Nantucket Service Area;

Canal Electric Company requested DPU to approve and authorize the sale of $10M worth of First and General Mortgage Bonds;

AT&T Communications requested DPU to reclassify the Company as a non-dominant carrier for the provision of telephone services in Massachusetts;

Independent Telecommunications Services and IMR Capital Corp. sought to provide alternative operator service and transmission services from hotels, motels, malls, correctional facilities and privately owned pay phones with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and Pay Phone, Inc. sought to provide alternative operator service and transmission services from hotels, motels and privately-owned pay phones within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Very truly yours,
