COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: City Government has the obligation to insure that Commissions and Boards, established to promote and preserve common goals in different settings, accomplish these goals with efficiency and cost-effectiveness; and

WHEREAS: Promotion and preservation of human rights is one such goal in different settings and the common thread which binds together the fabric of Cambridge's Human Rights Commission, the Commission on the Status of Women, the Commission on Peace and Nuclear Disarmament and the Police Review and Advisory Board; and

WHEREAS: Relative thereto, Cambridge's financial health dictates that we cut down operating costs in such a way that we will not only not cut out promotion and preservation of the goal, but will insure greater accountability in the achievement thereof; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Manager direct the City Solicitor to prepare for presentation to this Council a properly drafted amendment to the relevant ordinances of the City of Cambridge whereby the Human Rights Commission, the Commission on Peace and Nuclear Disarmament, the Commission on the Status of Women and the Police Review and Advisory Board will be consolidated and placed under jurisdiction of and be accountable to the Assistant City Manager for Human Services; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the requested amendment text be presented to the Council prior to its regularly scheduled session on May 15, 1989.
