Program

Community involvement -- It's our best investment! Your community -- your neighbors and friends, you will find them personally involved in all sorts of activities that make this a better place to live -- For all of us. You can too! Get involved! Be committed.

The purpose of the teleconference is to impart information to individuals who, through personal involvement, are committed to making our Country drug free.

Professionals in the area of community prevention programs will discuss illicit drug abuse and the action needed to make a difference "in fighting the drug war".

More than 200 national viewing sites have been provided by Holiday Inns, Inc., in conjunction with Comsat Video Enterprises, Inc. The sites are available, at no charge, to community leaders, civic, educational and religious groups, representatives of law enforcement, private industry, and the general public.

Call-in questions are encouraged during the last 50 minutes of the teleconference.

The program is scheduled for 2 hours, beginning at 8 p.m. (EDT),
October 26, 1989.
