

City of Cambridge

3.

IN CITY COUNCIL
April 23, 1979

MAYOR DANEHY

- WHEREAS: Citizens today enjoy more rights, greater access to our courts, and more ways and means of equitably resolving disputes than ever before; and
- WHEREAS: The nation's 16, 460 state trial and appellate courts and 105 federal courts today are handling more cases than at any other time in their history; and
- WHEREAS: In the past few decades many new frontiers have been opened in the field of law. New laws have been written and existing ones expanded to meet the challenges of the times; and
- WHEREAS: On the occasion of the twenty-second annual nationwide observance of Law Day U.S.A. on May 1, 1979, it is fitting that we, as citizens of this city of Cambridge, pause to reflect on our heritage of equal access to our courts and equal protection of the laws; and
- WHEREAS: The theme selected in recognition of Law Day is: The Law, Our Changing Rights; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Thomas W. Danehy, Mayor of Cambridge, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, May 1, 1979, as Law Day U.S.A. in Cambridge and urge the people, organizations, churches, schools and the media of public information to join in the observance of Law Day and to take part in community programs sponsored by the state, county and local bar associations.
