Massachusetts Alliance of Portuguese Speakers

Annual Community Awards Dinner

Friday, June 17, 1994

The Massachusetts Alliance of Portuguese Speakers (MAPS) will hold its first annual community awards dinner on Friday June 17, 1994. MAPS will be honoring Somerville Mayor Michael E. Capuano as "Person of the Year" and will be presenting its Community Recognition Awards to John Feitor and Padre Pio.

Mayor Capuano will be recognized for his strong support of MAPS during its first year of operation following the merger of SPAL and COPA as well as for his ongoing commitment to the Portuguese speaking community throughout his public career.

John Feitor will be honored for his commitment to Portuguese culture through his untiring efforts to bring about the Filarmonica de Santo António Cultural Center. Padre Pio will be celebrated for his many years of service to the Cape Verdean community and his commitment to social and economic justice for the people he serves.

To commemorate the annual awards, a program book will be produced. We are asking for your support of MAPS and its programs by placing an ad in this program book. Your donation will help MAPS continue its work of empowering the many Portuguese speaking communities in the area.
