

Late Order

Drift

X 72

November 5, 1990

MAYOR WOLF

WHEREAS: The public schools of Cambridge serve over seven thousand children from ~~all~~² diverse backgrounds; and

WHEREAS: We owe much of Cambridge's outstanding reputation in educational issues to teachers working at both the elementary and secondary levels of our schools; and

WHEREAS: Cambridge is fortunate to have outstanding and dedicated teachers whose concern for children extends after the school day, and is demonstrated by interactions between students in social settings, after³ school tutorials, student-teacher plays, and social involvement in programs such as the Students Against Violence and for Equality; and

WHEREAS: ~~In our small corner of the country,~~ we want to acknowledge the excellent efforts of our teachers, as school committees all over the country are doing during American Education Week; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council declares November 11-17, 1990 American Education Week, and encourages parents, residents, and fellow employees of the school system to thank teachers for a sometimes thankless job, and this Council encourages all people to be involved in the school system and to support teachers; and further be it

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to the Cambridge Teachers Association on behalf of all of Cambridge's teachers.

A handwritten signature or set of initials, possibly 'VH' or 'VH/9', written in dark ink.

City of Cambridge

72.

IN CITY COUNCIL

November 5, 1990

MAYOR WOLF

- WHEREAS: The public schools of Cambridge serve over seven thousand children from diverse backgrounds; and
- WHEREAS: We owe much of Cambridge's outstanding reputation in educational issues to teachers working at both the elementary and secondary levels of our schools; and
- WHEREAS: Cambridge is fortunate to have outstanding and dedicated teachers whose concern for children extends after the school day, and is demonstrated by interactions between students in social settings, afterschool tutorials, student-teacher plays, and social involvement in programs such as the Students Against Violence and for Equality; and
- WHEREAS: We want to acknowledge the excellent efforts of our teachers, as school committees all over the country are doing during American Education Week; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council declares November 11-17, 1990 American Education Week, and encourages parents, residents, and fellow employees of the school system to thank teachers for a sometimes thankless job, and this Council encourages all people to be involved in the school system and to support teachers; and further be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to the Cambridge Teachers Association on behalf of all of Cambridge's teachers.

In City Council November 5, 1990.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Joseph E. Connarton".

Joseph E. Connarton
City Clerk

Order # 72

S-1038

Mayor Wolf resolution on American
Education Week.

In City Council,

November 5, 1990

ORDER ADOPTED