

City of Cambridge

IN CITY COUNCIL

March 22, 1938.

WHEREAS

There are approximately three thousand bicycle owners among the children attending the public schools of our city, and

WHEREAS

It would appear that a system whereby plates attached to these bicycles would aid in the recovery of stolen bicycles, if such bicycles and their numbers were registered with the Police Department, it is

RESOLVED:-

That the Juvenile Delinquency Squad of the Police Department be and hereby is requested to consider the advisability of equipping all bicycles with number plates at a cost not to exceed twenty-five cents to be paid by the owner; also to keep on file the names and addresses of owners of bicycles, the make of the bicycle and the description and serial number in an effort to more efficiently prevent the continued theft of bicycles from school children and others.
