g. Utilities

1. Telephone exchange (including, switching, relay and transmission facilities serving mobile communications systems) and any towers or antennas accessory thereto

2. Transformer station, substation, gas regulator station, or pumping station

In Section 4.40 Footnotes to the Table of Use Regulations, add a new Footnote 49 as follows:

49. But not including a tower facility as a principal use, serving multiple operators, or as a freestanding structure on a lot. In reviewing a special permit application for mobile communications facilities in particular, the Board of Zoning Appeal shall consider the following in reaching its determination:

1. The scope of or limitations imposed by any license secured from any state or federal agency having jurisdiction over such matters.

2. The extent to which the visual impact of the various elements of the proposed facility is minimized: (1) through the use of existing mechanical elements on a builder's roof or other features of the building as support and background, (2) through the use of materials that in texture and color blend with the materials to which the facilities are attached, or (3) other effective means to reduce the visual impact of the facility from off the site; 3. Where it is proposed to erect such a facility in any residential zoning district, the extent to which there is a demonstrated public need for the facility at the proposed location, the existence of alternative, functionally suitable sites in non-residential locations, the character of the prevailing uses in the area, and the prevalence of other, existing mechanical systems and equipment carried on or above the roof of nearby structures. The Board of Zoning Appeal shall grant a special permit to erect such a facility in a residential zoning district only upon a finding that non residential uses predominate in the vicinity of the proposed facility's location and that the telecommunication facility is not inconsistent with the character that does not prevail in the surrounding neighborhood.

In granting a special permit the Board of Zoning Appeal shall set forth in its decision under which circumstances or procedures, if any, the permittee shall be allowed to replace and upgrade its equipment without the necessity of seeking a new special permit.

Harvard men's tennis team makes NCAA Sweet 16 tourney

For the second straight year, the Harvard men's tennis team won the regional tournament and made it to the NCAA's Sweet 16 round of tournament finalists.

Harvard, seeded 14th with a 20-6 record, faces the daunting task of lining up across the net from defending NCAA champ and third seed Stanford at UCLA on Saturday, 11 am California time, 2 pm Cambridge time.

But the Crimson have been known to pull off a big surprise.

Harvard trailed favored University of Miami 3-1 in the Regional I semifinals last Saturday at home and Mike Passarella lost the first set 1-6 at fifth singles. If Passarella lost the second set, the year would have ended for Harvard.

Passarella rallied to win his match 1-6, 7-5, 6-4. While Passarella rallied, Kunj Majmadur won 6-2, 7-6 (7-5) at fourth singles and John Doran won 6-4, 6-1 at sixth singles to enable the Crimson to clinch a come-from-behind 4-3 upset win.

"We have been training to take it one match and one point at a time all year and the discipline helped us," said Harvard coach Dave Fish. Harvard defeated Dartmouth 4-0 in the first round last Friday and clinched a berth in the Sweet 16 with a 4-1 win over Virginia Tech last Sunday.

Women's tennis just misses trip West

Close but no cigar for the Harvard women's tennis team. Harvard (20-6) was one win away from making it to the NCAA's Sweet 16 at Stanford before losing 5-3 in the finals of the Division I East Regional to top-seeded William Mary last Sunday at Brown University.

"We came so close that it's unbelievable," said Harvard coach Gordon Graham. "The kids worked so hard and never gave up. It was disappointing, yet encouraging at the same time that we almost made it to the Sweet 16."

Before losing to William and Mary, the Crimson blanked Virginia University 5-0 in the first round last Friday, and rallied from a 3-1 deficit to beat second-seeded Alabama 5-4 last Saturday.

Depth catapulted the Crimson, as their fifth and sixth players came through against Alabama. Vedica Jain won in three sets while Julia Kim won in straight sets at fifth and sixth singles respectively, and it was Jain and Kim who clinched the match as the third doubles team.

Overall, Ivy Wong, Rosemary She, Gabriella Hricko and senior captain Gina Majmudar had a good year from first through fourth singles. Wong and She played first doubles while Hricko and Majmudar were at second doubles.

Crimson softball takes second in ECAC

Beating a team in the regular season does not mean a sure thing come playoff time. The Harvard softball team learned that the hard way at last weekend's ECAC double-elimination tournament at Fairfield, Connecticut.

Harvard (32-19-1) defeated Cornell (35-15) twice in the regular season, but went 1-2 against them in the ECAC's and had to settle for second place.

Harvard lost 5-1 in the opening round to Cornell last Saturday before closing out the day with a 2-1 win over Fairfield behind right-hander Kathleen Brown.

Brown shut the door on top-seeded Maryland 3-0 Sunday morning and was aided by senior tri-captain Melissa Reyen's two-run double.

Right-hander Heather Brown then blanked Cornell 8-0, but was not able to duplicate the feat in the rematch. Heather Brown was relieved by left-hander Tasha Cupp in the first inning of a 6-3 loss.

"It was a pretty good season," said senior tri-captain Katina Lee. "I was disappointed not to win the ECAC tournament ... but we played hard."

Lee was an outstanding leadoff hitter for the Crimson, hitting .325 and stealing 10 bases. Senior tri-captain Melissa Kreuder led the team in hitting (.372), followed by Deborah Abeles (.338) and Terri Teller (.329). Abeles was the leading power hitter with three home runs and 37 runs batted in.

YOUTH BASEBALL

Bushnell and Billings blast home runs

In the West Division Minor League, the A's have a 4-0 record with victories over the Yankees and the Astros after two weeks of play.

The A's recorded their first two wins against the Yankees. The Yankees have had strong pitching by Marcus Johnson and Sean Dillon and promise to be a contender. The series vs. the Astros proved to be a highly competitive contest with both games being decided in the sixth inning.

The A's pitching battery of Sam Griswold and Dan Neczypor have been complemented by the hitting of Brendon Downs, Phil Shea and Craig Etridge. The A's are coached by Butch Dunphy and Ed Chaisson. The series saw home runs by Oliver Bushnell and Josh Billings.

Rockies' winning streak continues

ning streak from 1996, settling in at 4-0 after the first two weeks of the season. The Rockies have defeated the Cubs 20-7, Mariners 3-0, Phillies 6-4, and Padres 15-7.

The Rockies have received outstanding pitching from Marcia Whitehead and Lucas Harney. The offense has been led by the hitting of Jones Nunez, Sean Paul Jones and Louie DePasquale. The Rockies have also received key defensive plays from Eli Kendall, Francis Lynch and Nick Kitaeff. Also contributing to the Rockies' early success are Milis Turner, Ryan Kenny, Nick Harney and P.J. Johnson.

Other minor league notes: the White Sox are in second place behind the pitching of Mark Crane; the Phillies are tied for third and have had excellent pitching by Nick Hunter and Chip Malt.

Baseball action, East

In East Cambridge Little League baseball action, the first-place Marlins took on the second-place Phillies in a game that went down to the wire. The Marlins'

Chris Gavalanis delivered a two-out, based-loaded single with the score tied 12-12 to give the Marlins the victory. The Phillies were led by Keith Da Silva, who went 2-for-4 with two great defensive plays.

In other minor league games, the Rockies beat the Red Sox. The Indians, led by the pitching of Bryant Santos, defeated the Orioles. The As defeated the Dodgers.

Minor league standings as of May 11 are: Marlins, 5-0; As, 4-1; Indians, 4-1; Phillies, 3-2; Rockies, 2-3; Dodgers, 1-4; Orioles, 0-5; Red Sox, 0-5.

In major league action, the East Division-leading Phillies defeated the Braves, 2-1. Glen John had 14 strikeouts for the Phillies while Paul Remeika had 12 for the Braves.

In other action, the Cubs, led by Jordan's two-run double in the sixth, defeated the Angels by the score of 7-6.

Major league standings as of May 11 are: Phillies, 5-0; Mariners, 4-1; Cubs, 3-2; Angels, 2-3; Braves, 1-4; Giants, 0-5.

YOUTH SOCCER

Soccer Bolts win 5-0

The Cambridge under-12 girls Lightning Bolts posted a 5-0 shutout victory over Jamaica Plain on Saturday.

Great midfield defensive control, passing and play setup allowed a comfortable first-half Cambridge lead with goals by Helen Sullivan, Elizabeth Kaplan and Tessa Yesselman. The Lightning Bolts assured their victory by adding two goals in the second half by Sullivan and Rachel Follansbee. The victory over JP places the Bolts at 3-0-1.

Undermanned Storm falls to Dedham

An undermanned Cambridge Storm team, playing with courage and determination, lost to Dedham on Saturday.

Goalkeeper Collie Wendel fielded over 40 shots, making some incredible saves. Stefan Vitvitsky, Nikias Stefanakis and Jamie Highsmith were unbelievable on defense, never giving up under constant pressure. Bleecker Wheeler was a formidable force at stopper, with Chris Hiam and Aman Milner staunch at midfield.

Dedham scored first, midway through the first half, on a screen shot in the Storm's penalty area.

At the half, the score remained 1-0.

Minutes into the second half, striker Andrew Hamill, returning from an injury, blew past four Dedham players to put in a perfect shot from left of the penalty area, flanked by left wing Samir Sur. Dedham retaliated with two quick goals. But Hamill and Sur teamed up to bring the ball downfield, while right wing Sebastian Barona put a Hamill cross across the mouth of the goal solidly in the net.

The Storm's first loss leaves its record at 2-1-1, still good for a first-place tie with Dedham and King Philip in Division 2A.

Blaze singe Norfolk

The Cambridge Blaze defeated Norfolk 2-0 on Saturday in Norfolk, coming up with its best team performance to date.

Mia Mayhew was staunch at sweeper, seldom allowing Norfolk to penetrate Cambridge's penalty area, where Marcia Whitehead held the fort in goal for the shutout. Good defensive performances were turned in by Blair Stevens, Bethany O'Shea, Jennifer McNeil, Maria Harris and Jaime Wendel, while Julia Levenson, Kate Perry and Kinnon McCall were outstanding at midfield and stopper positions. Lucilla Luyerink-Haskovec contributed energetic and skillful play at several positions, while Jessie Freeman put consistent offensive pressure on Norfolk.

Left wing Emma Alexander scored the first goal on a pass by right winger Amanda Aldrich, who went on to score a beautiful goal from outside Norfolk's penalty area and was named player of the game. The Blaze's record is now 2-1-2.

Blizzard now 3-1-1

The Cambridge Blizzard traveled to Jamaica Plain last week and earned a 0-0 tie despite missing five starters. The Blaze followed that game with a 3-0 loss to a strong Needham club.

Two days later they hosted Medfield and returned to an aggressive style of tackling and ball control to win 2-0, with goals by Adin Buck and Abdullah Mammun.

On Saturday, May 10, the Blizzard hosted the second of two Franklin teams again posted another 2-0 win, with goals by Jeff Chaisson and Peter Crane. Cambridge had one goal called back and the defense squashed any Franklin scoring chances. The Blizzard now stand at 3-1-1 with four shutouts in five games.
