

Dear Sir or Madam,

Sept. 29, 1990

As a resident of Cambridge, I love to hear Cambridge street musicians play. The only problem is that they are required by law to stop performing at 11:00 p.m. Since there are no homes surrounding the Harvard Square area, I don't understand what the harm would be in allowing these talented people to play until midnight, at least on weekends. And so I am asking you to please repeal the 11:00 rule.

Sincerely,
