IN CITY COUNCIL

NOVEMBER 5, 1990

COUNCILLOR RUSSELL

- WHEREAS: Attempts at beautification by individuals in urban settings sometimes go unrecognized; and
- WHEREAS: The proliferation of beautiful flowers in front of St. John the Evangelist Church and Rectory in North Cambridge came about largely through the hard work and devotion of James Rita, parishioner of St. Johns; and
- WHEREAS: Such devotion to the beauty of not only his parish, but to the landscape of North Cambridge, should be noticed and commended; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record as congratulating Mr. Rita for his hard work, with gratitude, of course to his Maker for granting him a "green thumb", and to Father Cummings, who in his new roll as pastor of St. Johns is an inspiration to his parishioners, like Mr. Rita, who work very hard to insure that St. Johns remains a source of peaceful retreat in a sometimes hectic world, both aesthetically and spiritually; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution be presented to Father Cummings and Mr. James Rita on behalf of the entire City Council, with great expectations for next year's crop of beautiful flowers.
