

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE

MASSACHUSETTS

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

JOHN W. LYONS, MAYOR

May 21, 1940

To the Honorable, the City Council:

This is to officially notify you of the death of James J. Grace, 172 Larch Road, Cambridge, who died at his home in this city on May 16, 1940.

Mr. Grace was a native citizen of Cambridge and, at the time of his death, was a member of the Sinking Fund Commission, on which board he gave freely of his valuable time as an expert in financial matters.

I recommend that suitable action be taken by your honorable board as a tribute of respect to his memory, in which action I shall, of course, join.

Yours respectfully,

Mayor

IN CITY COUNCIL

October 15, 1940

WHEREAS

Notice has been received from His Honor, the Mayor, of the death on May 16, 1940 of James J. Grace, a former member of the Sinking Fund Commission, it is fitting and proper that notice be taken of the sad event.

Born in Cambridge Mr. Grace was graduated from St. Paul's Grammar School and Rindge Technical High School. He served on the Sinking Fund Commission of our city and has been connected with the banking business for over thirty years in Boston where he was highly respected.

Always ready and willing to give his time and energy for any cause that meant improvement to our city, he served this community well and his death has deprived Cambridge of one of its most distinguished and finest citizens. Now therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That this City Council hereby acknowledges the loss sustained in the passing of Mr. James J. Grace and would have this tribute to his memory spread upon the records.
