

City of Cambridge.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN,

April 9th, 1895.

Alderman Keith, moves to amend the order of notice relating to the proposed widening of Boylston street and Harvard square, as follows:-

1.-By striking from the first paragraph the following:-

"also that said Harvard square should be widened on the southerly side between Boylston street and Dunster street".

2.-By striking out the third paragraph, being so much as relates to the widening of Harvard square, and inserting in place thereof the following:-

Beginning at a point in the southeasterly line of Boylston street at its intersection with the southerly line of Harvard square: thence running easterly along the southerly line of Harvard square about thirty-eight (38) feet to the tangent point of a curve in the proposed southeasterly line of widening of Boylston street: thence running westerly and southerly along said curve of twenty (20) feet radius about twenty-nine (29) feet to its tangent point in the proposed southeasterly line of widening of Boylston street: thence running southwesterly along said proposed line parallel to and twenty (20) feet distant southeasterly from the southeasterly line of Boylston street about three hundred and twenty-four and five tenths (324.5) feet to the tangent point of a curve: thence running southerly and easterly along said curve of ten (10) feet radius about sixteen (16) feet to its tangent point in the northeasterly line of Mount Auburn street: thence running northwesterly along the northeasterly line of Mount Auburn street about thirty-one (31) feet to its intersection with the southeasterly line of Boylston street: thence running northeasterly along the southeasterly line of Boylston street about three hundred and fifty-two (352) feet to its intersection with the southerly line of Harvard square at the point of beginning. Containing about seven thousand one hundred and thirty-five (7135) square feet.

(Boylston street amendment No. 2.)

3.-By striking from the fifth and following paragraphs the words "and Harvard square" wherever the same may occur.

Proposed Amendment

to Ord of notice

Boylston St