IN CITY COUNCIL

April 22, 1974

Councillor Clinton

ORDERED:

That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to immediately take any and all steps to prevent Cambridge Common from becoming a barren waste land and a haven for stereophonic sound equipment which has been the case for the past several years and is a constant source of irritation for the many long term residents of the area and for all those who may wish to walk through the common and maintain a certain sense of peace and tranquility.
