

City of Cambridge

10.

IN CITY COUNCIL

MAYOR WOLF
VICE MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR MYERS

October 15, 1990

- WHEREAS: The 1990 Innovations Award winners were announced in New York City by Franklin Thomas, President of the Ford Foundation, and former Governor of Michigan William G. Milliken, Chair of the Innovations Award Selection Committee; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge Housing Authority Work Force Unemployment Prevention Program has been named one of the ten National winners of the 1990 Innovations in the State and Local Government by the Ford Foundation and the J.F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University; and
- WHEREAS: The Work Force Program is designed to provide a sense of career training and economic opportunity to teenagers living in public housing developments in Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: Through participation in the Work Force Program, young people are encouraged to experience success both in school and in employment training, thereby building their confidence so that they can break the poverty cycle; and
- WHEREAS: The Work Force Program has served more than 100 youths a year over the past five years and is considered highly successful by educators and employers who have hired participants; and
- WHEREAS: The program addresses important local and national problems while providing economic opportunity to our young people; and
- WHEREAS: The Innovations Program is administered by Professor Allen Altshuler, director of the Alfred Taubman Center for State and Local Government at the Kennedy School; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council goes on record expressing its hearty congratulations to the Work Force Program, to the Cambridge Housing Authority for its continued support of this program, and to its employees including Dan Wuenschel, Steve Swanger, Steve Davis, and all of the dedicated staff; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council goes on record expressing its hopes and best wishes for each and every one of the young people who has participated in the Work Program.

In City Council October 15, 1990.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

Joseph E. Connarton
Joseph E. Connarton
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

10.

IN CITY COUNCIL

October 15, 1990

MAYOR WOLF
VICE MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR MYERS

- WHEREAS: The 1990 Innovations Award winners were announced in New York City by Franklin Thomas, President of the Ford Foundation, and former Governor of Michigan William G. Milliken, Chair of the Innovations Award Selection Committee; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge Housing Authority Work Force Unemployment Prevention Program has been named one of the ten National winners of the 1990 Innovations in the State and Local Government by the Ford Foundation and the J.F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University; and
- WHEREAS: The Work Force Program is designed to provide a sense of career training and economic opportunity to teenagers living in public housing developments in Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: Through participation in the Work Force Program, young people are encouraged to experience success both in school and in employment training, thereby building their confidence so that they can break the poverty cycle; and
- WHEREAS: The Work Force Program has served more than 100 youths a year over the past five years and is considered highly successful by educators and employers who have hired participants; and
- WHEREAS: The program addresses important local and national problems while providing economic opportunity to our young people; and
- WHEREAS: The Innovations Program is administered by Professor Allen Altshuler, director of the Alfred Taubman Center for State and Local Government at the Kennedy School; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council goes on record expressing its hearty congratulations to the Work Force Program, to the Cambridge Housing Authority for its continued support of this program, and to its employees including Dan Wuenschel, Steve Swanger, Steve Davis, and all of the dedicated staff; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council goes on record expressing its hopes and best wishes for each and every one of the young people who has participated in the Work Program.

Order # 10

S-971

Mayor Wolf, Vice Mayor Reeves and Councillor Myeers re: congratulating the Work Force Program.

In City Council,

October 15, 1990

Order adopted