The Commonwealth of Massachusetts is presenting "Protecting Our Elders", a one-day seminar designed to assist local communities in our efforts to protect and ensure the continued safety of our elder population.

This one-day seminar will offer expert advice from a variety of local and state agencies, and features a keynote address by Susan Womick, the popular consumer reporter and news anchor for WCVB Television News.

Who Should Attend

The Protecting Our Elders conference is designed for:

- Police
- Fire
- Emergency Medical Technicians
- Service Providers
- Councils On Aging
- Caregivers
- Loved ones/family members
- And all others who have an interest in meeting the needs of the elderly members of their community.

Location

The Protecting Our Elders Conference will be held at:

Bunker Hill Community College
250 New Rutherford Road

Workshops

Workshop I: Community Policing & Local Law Enforcement Programs

Learn about programs that your local police department can implement to keep the elders in your community safe.

Workshop II: Fire Safety for Elders

Learn about a three-pronged approach to fire safety for seniors, including falling and fire injury prevention measures, smoke alarm installation and maintenance, as well as outreach to elders at risk.

Workshop III: Elder Driving Safety

Learn about challenges senior drivers face and programs that intervene if a senior becomes a threat to themselves or others.

Workshop IV: Preventing Elder Abuse

Overview of the Elder Protective Services System: how to identify and report elder abuse and how the community can work together to protect vulnerable seniors.

Workshop V: Home Improvement: Tools Seniors Can Use

Discover home modification projects that allow seniors to stay in their homes as they get older, and learn about state and local programs that help take the scare out of home repair.

Workshop VI: Scams, Swindles, and Flimflams

Far too often, seniors are the targets of con artists' fraudulent schemes. Learn about the latest consumer scams, and the projects designed to stop them.

Part One: Sweepstakes and Mail Fraud
Fraudulent consumer scams that target the elderly, and programs in place to stop them.

Part Two: Bank Reporting Project:
Public/private partnership preventing the financial exploitation of seniors.
