Councillor Walsh

January 7, 1991

" Sullivan

WHEREAS: On December 27, 1905 in Currow, County Kerry, Ireland a baby boy was born whose life would embrace and exhibit the towering strength of the Irish spirit and the towering hope of the American Dream where the channeling of personal initiative, industry and integrity would assure success. On that day was born Patrick J. Sullivan, our neighbor and friend from 8 Royal Avenue, Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Having arrived in the United States on November 11, 1924 with a well-rooted commitment to family life and a strong work ethic, in time he would become the father of seven children, grandfather to 27 grandchildren and great-grandfather to 14 great-grandchildren. For over sixty years he would work as a contractor, and from 1931 onward, would be a carpenter and building contractor on his own; and

WHEREAS: I am told that his vibrant good health is due in no small measure to two weekly events which he never misses. One, the Irish Dances on Saturday nights; the other, watching the Cambridge City Council on Cable TV on Monday nights. As to the impact of the latter, if nothing else, it proves that having a sense of humor is the heart of health; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Council joins with his family and friends in extending Birthday Greetings to Patrick J. Sullivan as he celebrates his 85th Birthday in the midst of those who love and respect him intensely as father, grandfather, great-grandfather, neighbor, workman and friend. Many Happy Returns to Patrick J. Sullivan not only on this special occasion but on every day yet to dawn in the life of this very special person; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and is requested to prepare a duly engrossed copy of this Resolution and transmit same to Patrick J. Sullivan on behalf of the entire City Council
