NORTH CAMBRIDGE SENIORS
50th ANNIVERSARY

Congratulations to Dorothea and Andrew Johnston on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary! Dot has been a volunteer at the North Cambridge Senior Center for the past 14 years and coordinates the Watch Our Weight (WOW) group. Prior to that, Dot worked for the Council on Aging and Cambridge Housing for many years. We wish the Johnstons the best and many more years of wedded bliss!

NEW SENIOR AIDES AT OUR SENIOR CENTERS

When you come to the North Cambridge Senior Center, say "hello" to Cirion D'Souza, our new Senior Aide. Cirion and his lovely wife Netty have been here for one year. They came from Kenya to be near their son and his family in Arlington. Mr. D'Souza, with his long history of secretarial and office work, will be working at the center 20 hours per week from Monday through Thursday. His easy smile and courteous manner, plus his computer knowledge have already proved him to be a very welcome asset to our center. Welcome, Cirion, we're so happy to have you join our staff.

Also, welcome to Diana Powers, a new Senior Aide at the Citywide Senior Center who is assisting with the Food Pantry and other projects.

LEARN A NEW HOBBY OR SKILL

There is nothing like learning something new to brighten up your life. We offer many programs, events, and social activities at the North Cambridge Senior Center. We have classes in Spanish, Art, Crafts, Computers, Stretch/Exercise, Watch our Weight, Line Dancing; also Bingo, Whist, Cribbage and Chess. We have day trips, parties, movies, videos, teas, SHINE counseling and lunch daily. Why not come, join a class, have lunch, or just visit and see what we're about? We always welcome new seniors to our Center.

VISION COMMUNITY SERVICES

VISION Community Services will do a presentation on Thursday, September 14, 2000, from 1:00 – 2:00. At the presentation, VISION Community Services will discuss the symptoms of all age-related eye diseases, visual aid equipment, volunteer opportunities and other services they provide to the visually impaired community. Come join us in the Milne Ballroom and learn more. For more information, please contact Susan Pacheco at 349-6220.
