14.
IN CITY COUNCIL
May 23, 1977

MAYOR VELLUCCI

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is initiating a parking program at the Cambridge Hospital employing a moderate parking fee, and

WHEREAS: The monies generated will help the lots pay for themselves, and

WHEREAS: Roberto Garcia of the Cambridge Hospital has brought to our attention that this is a sound and fair program; however, it fails to take into account the many unpaid volunteers who generously give their time to the Cambridge Hospital offering invaluable service to patients and staff, now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That provisions be adopted in the parking program to allow all volunteers to park at hospital facilities free of charge.

In City Council May 23, 1977
