Dear Henrietta,

Enclosed please find a copy of the new 1998-99 edition of the Cambridge Community Business and Visitor Map for your interest. The easy to read format provides a wonderful means for people to learn about Cambridge.

For your general information, over 125,000 maps are distributed each year. In fact, last year 8,000 maps were donated to the Cambridge Public Schools to teach map reading skills to the students. The concept is that students benefit from learning about their community while learning how to read a map. The Map front cover displays a picture from a day the students from the Charles G. Harrington School went touring Cambridge, using the Map. Finally, a portion of the Map proceeds are donated to a scholarship at the Rindge and Latin High School.

The Cambridge Map is an excellent resource for visiting professionals, students, and tourists new to the area. If you would like more copies of the Cambridge Map please do not hesitate in contacting me.

Sincerely,

Sheldon Cohen
