TO: Robert W. Healy, City Manger

FROM: Richard Easler, MBTA Advisory Board Designer

SUBJECT: Council Order #2 of 10/4/82, i.e., MBTA Level of Services etc.

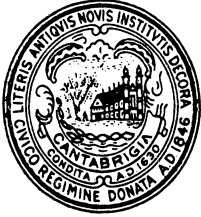

DATE: October 19, 1982

In it budget request for the period 1/1/83 to 6/30/84 the MBTA has assumed the same level of service that has been scheduled for the fall of 1982. This means that the following Cambridge services cut in the spring of 1981 will not be restored:

- Rte. 63 Cleveland Circle - Central Square
Sundays service not reinstated
- Rte. 72 Huron Avenue - Harvard Square
Weekend service not reinstated
- Rte. 75 Harvard Square - Kendall Square
All service not reinstated
- Rte. 86 Sullivan Square - Allston
Sunday service not reinstated

In regards to cleanliness, the MBTA proposes to have private contractors, instead of MBTA employees, responsible for cleaning all buses, rapid transit cars, Green Line vehicles, building maintenance, and rapid transit and Green Line stations (other than Red Line south and Orange Line south). In addition the MBTA has requested funding for 12 additional police department personnel and increased funding for the training and retraining of other MBTA employees (especially starters and inspectors) in, among other things, public safety.
