

City of Cambridge

25.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 12, 1993

MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR WOLF

- WHEREAS: To meet the ever changing needs of today's society requires direct and innovative efforts to address many of the immediate specific problems of urban renewal, work force, health, the economy and other intricacies of our country; and
- WHEREAS: The Pew Charitable Trust in granting $7.9 million to the Pew Partnership for Civic Change is facilitating and promoting the ongoing efforts of the smaller cities of America; and
- WHEREAS: Administered under the auspices of the University of Richmond, the Pew Partnership will award grants of up to $400,000 each to as many as 15 cities to implement a positive approach to the challenges of urban living; and
- WHEREAS: Based in Philadelphia, PA, the Pew Charitable Trust supports the non-profit activities of conservation, environment, culture, public policy, education, religion and human services; and
- WHEREAS: Through their grant process, the Trusts are encouraging personal participation in the varied programs, thus enabling individuals to cope in a realistic manner with the issues of daily living; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby applaud the ongoing, concerted efforts of Pew Charitable Trust in expending and providing the necessary resources to bring a higher dimension of assistance and progress to the long term benefit of our cities.

In City Council April 12, 1993.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

25.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 12, 1993

MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: To meet the ever changing needs of today's society requires direct and innovative efforts to address many of the immediate specific problems of urban renewal, work force, health, the economy and other intricacies of our country; and

WHEREAS: The Pew Charitable Trust in granting $7.9 million to the Pew Partnership for Civic Change is facilitating and promoting the ongoing efforts of the smaller cities of America; and

WHEREAS: Administered under the auspices of the University of Richmond, the Pew Partnership will award grants of up to $400,000 each to as many as 15 cities to implement a positive approach to the challenges of urban living; and

WHEREAS: Based in Philadelphia, PA, the Pew Charitable Trust supports the non-profit activities of conservation, environment, culture, public policy, education, religion and human services; and

WHEREAS: Through their grant process, the Trusts are encouraging personal participation in the varied programs, thus enabling individuals to cope in a realistic manner with the issues of daily living; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does request the City Manager to contact the Pew Charitable Trust and determine how the residents of the City of Cambridge might benefit from this fund.

CONSENT ORDER #25

Mayor Reeves re: Pew Charitable Trust.

In City Council,

April 12, 1993

Order Adopted