In Board of Aldermen, Oct. 29, 1873.

~~Ordered~~, The Committee on Roads and Bridges to which were referred petitions of

Edward Page
W. R. Ellis & Co.
Edgar L. Kinsley and Hancock & Gruley

for compensation for damages to their estates by reason of location of Sixth St. across Broad Canal, having heard the parties.

Reports, That as the Order laying out said street and awarding damages was passed last year, and as the time for an appeal from that award has expired, the petitioners have no legal claim against the city, and therefore your Committee recommends that the petitioners severally have leave to withdraw.

For the Committee,

S. F. Woodbridge
