RE: City Council Order #45 of October 21, 1996 relating to the Mid-Cambridge
Neighborhood study

The Mid-Cambridge Neighborhood Study Committee began its work in October of 1993 and completed its planning efforts in the summer of 1994. The preliminary findings of that process were presented to the Mid-Cambridge Neighborhood Association in the fall of 1994 and discussed with representatives of the Neighborhood Association for review and comment in a series of joint meetings with the Study Committee held in the winter and spring of 1995. The recommendations and modifications resulting from that joint review have been incorporated into the final draft Study Report, which shall be available for distribution and review by the Study Committee and Mid-Cambridge Neighborhood representatives by the end of November of this year.

After that final review, the Study Report will be published at the end of January, 1997. The published Report and its findings will be presented to the neighborhood in February-March of 1997.
