Dear Councillors:

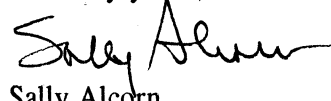

On behalf of the Harvard Square Business Association, I would like to request the Council's permission to hold our 9th annual Harvard Square Holiday Procession on Friday, November 27, 1992 beginning at 5:00 p.m.

The procession begins and ends at the Charles Square corner of Bennett and Eliot street, in order to include Cambridge YMCA and YWCA families who are attending a holiday party at the Charles Hotel that afternoon. The route of the procession through Harvard Square has changed substantially and will follow Eliot to John F. Kennedy street north to Mt. Auburn street east, onto Holyoke street and left onto Mass. Ave. around the Out of Town News kiosk onto Brattle Street, and back to the corner of Eliot and Bennett streets in time for the Tree Lighting Ceremony at 6:00 p.m.

As in the past, the Cambridge Police Department has agreed to escort the procession on this occasion.

Thank you again for your cooperation and participation in what has proven to be a first-of-the-season celebration for Cambridge.

Sincerely yours,

Sally Alcorn
Executive Director
