

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE

MASSACHUSETTS 02139 • 617-876-6800

23.

Barbara Ackermann
Mayor

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS:-

St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church is this year celebrating its 100th Anniversary; and

WHEREAS:-

The church was the first Black church and first Black organization in the City of Cambridge; and

WHEREAS:-

During these one hundred years members of the church have initiated and participated in many significant social changes including the first Civil Rights legislation in the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS:-

Many distinguished leaders have served as ministers of this church; and

WHEREAS:-

Bishop Ernest Lawrence Hickman will officiate at the service honoring the church's 100th Anniversary on September 16th; and

WHEREAS:-

The people of Cambridge are deeply grateful to the clergy and laity of St. Paul Church for the many valuable and informative services they provide to the Cambridge Community particularly in the fields of education, health and social services; and

WHEREAS:-

We here in Cambridge take pride in joining with the many parishioners and friends of St. Paul Church in their jubilation and rededication of this great institution; now therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That I, Barbara Ackermann, Mayor of the City of Cambridge do hereby proclaim the week of September 16th-23rd, 1973, as

SAINT PAUL AFRICAN METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH WEEK IN CAMBRIDGE

And urge all of our citizens to celebrate this special occasion by participating in the many scheduled events.

by the affirmative vote

9 Members

Barbara Ackermann
BARBARA ACKERMANN, MAYOR

Paul E. Leahy
CITY CLERK

Order #23 340

PROCLAMATION

Proclaiming the week of Sept. 16-23rd
as St. Paul A.M.E. Church Week in Cambridge.

In City Council,

Sept. 10, 1973