The Members of the Cambridge City Council:

As is my right under the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and Chapter 43 section 9B of the Massachusetts General laws and Rule 23 of the Cambridge City Council Rules and the provisions of Chapter 30A of the Massachusetts General laws, I demand to be heard for ten (10) minutes on each of the following matters:

1. The resignation of City Councillor William Walsh as Chair of the City Councils Cable TV and Communications Committee which he has held and now holds in violation of Rule 14 of the City Councils Rules and the costs and consequences should Councillor Walsh refuse to resign or should the Mayor refuse to revoke Councillor Walsh's appointment to the position.

2. The costs and consequences should the City Council fail and refuse to inquire, in accordance with section 107 of Chapter 43 of the General laws, of their employee Robert Healy, Issuing Authority for Cable TV licenses as to the reasons for his intentional delay in responding to the ⁽¹⁾ September 14, 1992 request for a report by Councillor's Walsh Dechay, Russell & Toomey RE Continental Cablevision's policy on senior citizen discounts (2) the policy of Continental Cablevision's local management's policy of charging Cambridge subscribers for rental of remote units (3) the Complaints of various citizens including me against Continental Cablevision for repeated violations of the City's original license with Continental Cablevision's limited partner American.

3. The costs and consequences (a) should the City Council fail and refuse to (1) allow me equal time to rebutt the Phillip Sussler report, the Rosaline Niles opinion and the Erwin Hipsman Communication and (2) vote that I receive a check from the City for $686 x 6 and (3) Should the city manager continue to refuse to retain my services under contract to enforce the Cable TV license and continue to refuse to direct Continental to stop payments to CCTV
