20.

IN CITY COUNCIL

August 7, 1989

- WHEREAS: Heroism should never go unnoticed, particularly when such action saves a human life; and
- WHEREAS: Cambridge Police Officer Thomas Grainger, a six year veteran of the Department, along with his partner, Officer Timothy Boyle, responding to a fire located at 3 Baldwin Court on the night of July 7, 1989 found two individuals on the ground next to a building fully involved in flames; and
- WHEREAS: While Officer Boyle attended to those individuals, Ernest Smith and Jennifer Camara, who lay injured on the ground, Officer Grainger ran into the burning building and rescued 67 year old Anthony Rizzuto, who was found standing between the door and the kitchen; and
- WHEREAS: This act of personal bravery resulted in saving Mr. Rizzuto's life and was undertaken without regard for his (Officer Grainger's) life and was an instinctive act as a police officer; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record extending its sincere appreciation and gratitude to Officers Thomas Grainger and Officer Timothy Boyle for their singular acts of bravery on July 7, 1989; and be it further
