

RECEIVED BY
OFFICE OF CITY CLERK

Cambridge, 15 April (Tuesday) 1980

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

The undersigned ~~respectfully~~ pray

I would like it brought up in City Council Meeting - for my own benefit only - that the city (Cambridge) has no stores, yet,
where I might buy a fire-ladder - called?
fire ropes for any floor above say the 3rd floor - this cost being by Dickson Hardware and/or Commonwealth Lock - Aug 1979 - some $29.95 - 29.95.
As I was living on the 6th floor and was a little upset + out of cash at that time - I did not buy, say a clothes line - believing it once again to be only a personal issue - I have never lived in a project but since Nov 1979 have ~~not~~ been able to afford a telephone.

Demetri Dickson

Thank you for yr. attention in this matter -
In the anyway I might be apprised
if this 'memo' is read in City Council?
