

Cambridge, May 25. 1865.

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned respectfully pray that a new street may be laid out from Mount Auburn Street to Main Street, over lanes of J. H. and J. P. Flayes, substantially in continuation of Bowls Street, and over the same lanes through which the Raining, ten Street Sewer now runs.

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, June 16th 1869.

The Committee on Roads & Bridges would submit the following report on the petition of Octavius Howe et al for a new street from Main to Mt Auburn St. Your committee have examined the premises and have come to the unanimous conclusion that public convenience does not require that said street should be laid out and they would recommend that the petitioners be granted leave to withdraw.
