WHEREAS: In the past 20 years medical science has made great strides in learning about substance use and the nature of addiction; and

WHEREAS: Addiction is a chronic, relapsing illness that involves a number of brain chemistry disorders. Treatment for addiction is as effective as treatments for other chronic medical conditions, such as diabetes and high blood pressure; and

WHEREAS: Substance use and addiction result in high societal and economic costs. It was recently estimated that the cost of untreated addiction in the United States is $276 billion a year. Clearly, the toll substance abuse takes on the family and friends of the individual battling with addiction is immeasurable. But recovery is possible. Every day in every part of the United States, men, women, and youth are entering treatment and beginning the road to recovery and families seek hope and recovery in support programs and counseling; and

WHEREAS: National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month celebrates the tremendous strides taken by individuals who have undergone successful treatment, families in recovery, and recognizes those in the treatment field who have dedicated their lives to helping people recover from addiction. This year, the national campaign focuses on supporting those in addiction treatment and recovery and those they directly or indirectly impact. It embraces the theme "We Recover Together: Family, Friends, and Community." now therefore be it in the City of Cambridge and encourage all residents to promote the benefits of drug and alcohol addiction treatment and recovery and to support community treatments programs.

RESOLVED: That this City Council proclaim the month of September 2001 as

National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month

In City Council July 30, 2001.
