

November 2nd, 1955.

Pole & Conduit Commission,
City Hall,
Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Gentlemen:-

At a meeting of the City Council held on October 31, 1955 a report of the Committee on Public Service was adopted recommending that a communication from the Department of Public Utilities with notice of hearing to be held on Friday, November 4, 1955 on the petition of the Metropolitan Transit Authority to erect one pole on the northeasterly side of Monsignor O'Brien Highway between the Somerville line and Third Street stating that the City Council had no objection and recommending that the notice be referred to the Pole and Conduit Commission.

Enclosed you will find the notice as aforesaid.

Very truly yours,

Frederick H. Burke,
City Clerk.
