AMENDED ORDER

10.

IN CITY COUNCIL

June 15, 1992

COUNCILLOR RUSSELL

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

WHEREAS: The daily newspapers have been filled with accounts of domestic violence, especially against women, and

WHEREAS: Unfortunately, in many instances, these acts of violence are performed by family members, most notably spouses or in some cases boy friends of victims who are under restraining orders which are issued by the Courts, and

WHEREAS: These restraining orders are difficult to enforce, and are constantly being broken, and

WHEREAS: Women and children who are the usual victims in these cases deserve to live in peace, but in fact are living in terror, now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to direct the Police Commissioner, to develop a procedure for dealing with these situations, and report back to the City Council with a plan at our mid-summer meeting; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Police Commissioner also upon evaluation of the Boston Plan make a recommendation to the City Manager regarding the possible purchase and implementation of these possible life saving devices for use by Cambridge residents.

In City Council June 15, 1992.

Adopted as amended by the affirmative vote of nine members.
