CITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

In Board of Aldermen, December 19th, 1893.

The Joint Standing Committee on Roads and Bridges which was requested to consider and report upon the advisability of extending and laying out Sixth street from Gore street to the Somerville line,

Reports

That inasmuch as the extension of Sixth street to the Somerville line would leave a dead end at said line, and action upon the part of the City of Somerville would be required to make said street continuous to Somerville Avenue, - your Committee deems it inadvisable to recommend such extension at this time.
