

CITY COUNCIL ORDER

VICE MAYOR REEVES

SEPTEMBER 18, 1990

- 13
- WHEREAS: The Thomas Danehy Park, a Cambridge park of unprecedented size, was created for the use of all Cambridge residents, and
- WHEREAS: This fifty-acre park contains a number of excellent athletic playing fields, a bicycle path, a running path, a wildlife marsh, numerous cold picnic areas, and two small children's play areas, and
- WHEREAS: This park clearly provides an excellent recreational resource, but will also attract many people who simply wish to enjoy the open space, and
- WHEREAS: Presently the Thomas Danehy Park contains no standard park benches to accommodate those for whom sitting on the ground creates a hardship or inconvenience, now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council request the City Manager to look into the feasibility of having park benches installed at the new Thomas Danehy Park, and report back within two weeks.
