Homemaker

Annie Elizabeth (Thurston) Burrell died Aug. 2. She was 84.

Mrs. Burrell was born in Cambridge, daughter of the late Walter L. and Annie (Herbert) Thurston. She attended the Houghton Elementary School and Cambridge High and Latin School. While attending Cambridge Latin, she met her husband-to-be, Stanley J. Burrell, who was across campus at Rindge Technical School. Their union produced four children, Stanley, Gerard, Bertha and Sandra.

She was a homemaker most of her life, however, she also worked for many years at the Window

Shop in Harvard Square and the Cambridge Election Commission. She was an active member on the board of directors at the Cambridge Community Center from 1985 to 1993. In 1993 she was named an honorary member and continued her service to the center and community by supporting their activities and events.

She is survived by one son, Stanley J. Burrell; one daughter, Sandra Thomas; one daughter-in-law, Anna Burrell; 14 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, four sisters, Christina Thurston, Jeanette LeFleur, Mary Weekes and Gertrude Ford; one brother-in-law, Robert Ford; and many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. She was also the sister of the late Walter A. Thurston.

A Funeral Service was held Aug. 7 at St. Paul A.M.E. Church in Cambridge, with burial at Cambridge Cemetery. Arrangements were made by the A. J. Spears Funeral Home in Cambridge.
