COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
 COUNCILLOR BORN
 COUNCILLOR BRAUDE
 COUNCILLOR DAVIS
 COUNCILLOR DECKER
 MAYOR GALLUCCIO
 VICE MAYOR MAHER
 COUNCILLOR REEVES

WHEREAS: The Federal Communications Commission has designated "211" to be used by community services organizations to help the public obtain free information about shelter, food service programs, counseling services and battered women's shelters; and

WHEREAS: This City Council has established this community as a "Domestic Violence Free Zone" and providing a "211" service would be an additional means of disseminating information relative to domestic violence services; and

WHEREAS: This City Council has been seeking a means to distribute information relative to the variety of human service programs that the City offers and providing a "211" service would further publicize this information; and

WHEREAS: A "211" service could provide a means to inform residents, businesses and visitors of services offered in Cambridge; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager is hereby requested to confer with the appropriate officials relative to the possibility of implementing a "211" telephone service in Cambridge that would inform the public relative to human services and domestic violence programs.

In City Council July 31, 2000.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
