order 8-7-89 53.

There is a tree at the corner of Blanche Street and a Green street. Specie unknown at this writing. It's a green tree and it's a healthy tree. It's big n' strong, whereas:

'Tis said by the kids in Cambridge that the tree must be saved from the bulldozers force. The tree must not die to make way for development. The kids say that because of the greenhouse affect all the trees in Cambridge are important.

NOW THEREFOR BE IT ORDERED

The tree at the corner of Blanche Street and Green street is a "Sacrosant" tree. It's got its roots in sacred earth which is the property of all the people who live in Cambridge who are concerned with ozone damage and global warmth. Since the corner of Blanche Street and Green Street is considered "earthly paradise" this City Council makes it known that a "hands off" policy is being declared ~~by this~~ and that all governmentae departments be informed of the action by this City Council, and that the tree be preserved for ever.
